

9th International Conference on Neurodegenerative Disorders and Stroke

Dan Suiaga

Head of Neurosurgery & Co-ordinator of Neurolife Center, Life Memorial Hospital, Bucharest, E-mail: dansuiga@tuta.io

Market Analysis

Top 10 causes of death in 2011

Over a billion people (13.46% of the global population) are affected by neurological disorders, 350 million people are suffering from heavy depression globally with a high concentration in certain Asian countries like South Korea, Japan, and China.

50 million brain aneurysm related deaths every year with half aged below 50,

The global market in this field is expected to grow by 36.7 bn (7.4% CAGR),

US Stroke management market - 48.984 bn by 2023

Neuro therapeutics CAGR - 13.5% (2017-23) FROM $27.Bn to $45Bn.

10% of the deaths every year globally are due to neurological disorders.

5.4 Mn in the US are living with Alzheimer's,

Global Neuromarketing is expected to have a CAGR of 12%.

The EU incurs the cost of US$51.4 Bn annually due to stroke apart from human capital loss in the Economy.

The global neuropathic pain market growth shows a CAGR of 6.06% due to an uptick in Diabetes and Cancer cases. The demand for novel treatment methods is going to spur in the market!

North America is the largest supplier of the Neurofeedback system, with a production market share of around 20.05%.

Considering the ever-increasing industrialization and stress levels in developing countries like India, Indonesia and emerging markets of Africa, there is a strong growing demand and a high level of proper treatment in demand at these regions. In India, the Diagnostics sector dominates the Market and India would continue to be a dominant market till 2022 achieving a market value of $1.8 Billion.

With an excessive demand and need globally, the conference invites people to create change share knowledge, inspire others with their exceptional work and make the world a better place!